

Life in Roman Britain

Tick or circle the correct answer

1. Who was Julius Caesar?
the first Roman to visit Britain	the Governor of Britain	a famous Roman poet
2. Caesar praised the Britons because:
they could build good houses	they controlled their horses well	they built straight roads
3. The family visits York. How do they travel?
on horseback	walk	in a covered wagon
4. What is the Latin name for York?
Eboracum	Roma	Londinium
5. They meet their friend Barates in York. Who is he?
a Scottish doctor	a flagseller from Syria	a Celtic farmer
6. The men write on a Vindolanda tablet to Flavius. What are they asking for?
more food	more beer	more pay
7. At the baths they would go into the frigidarium. What is it?
the warm room	the hot room	the cold room
8. Minimus carries a little flask to the baths. What does this contain?
oil	water	juice

When they invaded Britain, the Romans made many changes to life. Did these changes improve life for everyone or did they make it harder for some? Write down three ways in which you think life improved and three ways in which you think it became harder.

Improvements	Difficulties

How did you get on?

